

Cases were defined as a death or non-fatal injury related to a house fire. Program houses had received a smoke alarm through Operation Installation, between 2001 and 2011. Non-Program houses were all other houses in the same census tracts, that did not receive a smoke through Operation Installation.

Injury Prevention Center
of Greater Dallas

Rate of Deaths and Injuries from House
Fires in Neighborhoods Where Operation Installation Was Performed

Rate per 100,000 population

